

November 1, 2008

Friends and Colleagues,

The University of Georgia Debate Union is pleased to invite you to the Twelfth Annual Bulldog Debates which will be held in Athens, Georgia, on March 6th through March 8, 2009. We wish to make this year's Bulldog Debates an enjoyable and educational experience. Last year, our tournament drew more than 70 teams from six states. We are a TOC Qualifier at the Semi-Final level.

There will be six (6) preliminary rounds of open and novice, switch-side debate. The national policy resolution will be used in both varsity and novice team debate (Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase alternative energy incentives in the United States.). Entry fees will be $50.00 per team. We expect to have a very small pool of hired judges available. Many of our students will be traveling to college tournaments of their own during our tournament and their judging will be limited.

We will have distinct Varsity and Novice policy debate divisions. Coaches will still be able to enter novice teams in the varsity division if they choose to do so. Such a decision will preclude a team from receiving awards designated for the novice division.

We look forward to seeing old friends and welcoming new ones to our campus. Please call us if we can provide you with any additional information. We hope to adhere to the tentative schedule listed below. With the change in date, the size of the entry may result in an amendment of this schedule when we get closer to the tournament date.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Panetta, Ph.D.

Tournament Details

AWARDS

Permanent trophies will be presented to all teams reaching the elimination rounds. Speaker awards will be given on the basis of the number of entries.

JUDGES

Each school is responsible for providing three rounds of judging for every two debaters in the tournament, or six rounds for every four debaters entered. HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED AS JUDGES. The University of Georgia has a limited number of hired judges available at a fee of $20.00 per round for team debate. Schools needing to hire judges are encouraged to register early. All judging fees will be assessed as of February 28, 2009 at 4:00 p.m. Schools needing to hire judges after February 28 will be placed on a waiting list. When we exhaust the available supply of UGA judges we will attempt to match schools with interest judges. Schools will be expected to pay these contracted judges directly.

CHANGES

Because alterations to teams' original entries have the habit of occurring, we request that you notify David Cisneros as soon as possible. David may be reached at 770-316-0464. You may also notify us of any changes via fax at 706-542-3245. We can also be reached via email at josue.cisneros@gmail.com.

FEES AND REGISTRATION

Registration will be held between 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. on March 6, 2009 in Phi Kappa Hall at the University of Georgia. Registration fees will be assessed as of Monday March 2, 2009 at 4:00 p.m. Schools that register, but do not show, will be billed.

TEAM LIMITS

Presently, we are limiting entries from one school to six teams in varsity and four teams in novice. If it is logistically possible, we will to remove this cap. Please contact us early if you would like to bring more teams than the cap allows. A waiting list will be kept for schools desiring to bring additional debaters. If there is room for additional teams, schools on the waiting list will be notified after 4:00 p.m. February 28, 2009. We define a policy debate team as two individuals debating together. Individuals choosing to debate alone in policy debate will be assigned losses in those debates.

TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS QUALIFIER

Based upon last year's tournament, the 2008 Bulldog Debates will be a TOC Qualifier. Teams in the semi-final rounds should qualify for the TOC to be held at the University of Kentucky in May of 2009.
